New Board & Officers Arrive in July

The Chamber will welcome five new directors and see a change of Executive Officers at the start of its fiscal year in July 2018. The Nominating Committee for the Farragut West Knox Chamber's 2018/19 Board reviewed multiple candidates through applications and interviews before presenting a slate to the current board for approval. The slate was presented to the membership in April and became official later that month.

Cory Beilharz, Christian Brothers Automotive; Bruce Giles, First Utility District; Angela Harvey, First Tennessee; and Kevin Human, Ricki's Pet Depot, will each serve a three-year term. Katie Park, SouthEast Bank will serve a one-year term.

The selection process was a difficult one, per the nominating committee. Board member and committee chair Darla Berdal said, "We were really pleased to have so much interest from so many outstanding candidates. Each one was incredibly thoughtful in their applications and interviews; it made for a lot of discussion and tough decisions." The board is "excited to have the perspective of industries of different types and sizes

They have trust in the leader and trust in each other. This team is one that has a strong positive authentic leader who values the team both as individuals and for what they can accomplish in the organization. They also have a high level of understanding of their peers (how they operate, what is important to each, and their personal agendas). The individual team members are secure in their work environments.

They do not have a fear of conflict. Team members view conflict as an opportunity to increase understanding and effectiveness. They also have a good understanding of how to proactively deal with the issues of conflict resolution.

They do not have a lack of commitment. The individuals that make up this team are focused on positive results and are willing to do what is necessary to get those results. They take responsibility for their part in the process.

They do not avoid accountability. This is the tension that is needed to bring about the necessary positive changes, on an ongoing basis, that all organizations require. These individual team members and the team as a whole understand that they have a responsibility to deliver on organizational, team and individual goals. They welcome the accountability of their peers, their supervisors and the organization.

They pay great attention to results. This is the bottom line of why they are there – RESULTS! They understand that meeting goals provide long-term security for the organization, the team and them as individual employees. Positive results are the engine that runs this train. Successful teams understand that, focus on it, and never make excuses for their shortcomings.

President Quotes 'n Notes

Julie A. Blaylock

With our annual auction a week away, items are still arriving and details still adjusting—like they have every spring for 30 years. In the years I've spent helping plan this event, I've learned it helps to treat the unplanned like a surprise. It's also not a bad way to approach life's little surprises in general.

I recently replayed one of my favorite TED Talks by Tony Robbins, "Why We Do What We Do." It's a great 20 minute clip on what motivates us. Robbins says that people SAY they like "surprises", but what they mean is they like the surprises they WANT. (Those we don't want, we call "problems"!) Robbins is right, but he underscores the need to let ourselves continue to be surprised by life. A sense of humor and reasonable flexibility in thinking can go a long way toward a happier existence overall, no matter the situation.

"One of the most beneficial and valuable gifts we can give to ourselves in this life: is allowing ourselves to be surprised! It is okay if life surprises you. It's a good thing!"

~C. JoyBell C.

"Would you like to know your future? If your answer is yes, think again. Not knowing is the greatest life motivator. So enjoy, endure, survive each moment as it comes to you in its proper sequence -- a surprise."

~Vera Nazarian

"All bumps are unexpected. If you knew they were coming, you'd avoid them completely."

~Rebekah Crane

"Be unprepared, that's my motto. Let life surprise you."

~Marty Rubin

"This year life may not go exactly as planned. But that's okay; I love surprises."

Who's who... Tropical Smoothie Cafe

By Erin Collins

How do you make the leap from the steel industry to smoothies? Ask Jason Willeman. Only two years ago the Ohio native was working for a steel company. After working in steel manufacturing for 20 years, Willeman thought it was time to venture into a new opportunity. Willeman, thankfully, was given the chance to franchise a Tropical Smoothie Cafe and moved with his family to Knoxville.

Willeman explains that, as a business, Tropical Smoothie Cafe was a good choice because, "People are becoming more aware of what a healthier lifestyle can do long term and I wanted to be a part of that." Tropical Smoothie Cafe originally began in 1997, when the first location opened in Destin, Florida. While the original menu only contained smoothies, in 1999 they added a range of wholesome food options, to complement their already popular smoothie menu.

Today, they offer a variety of healthy options from breakfasts like wraps and flat-bread sandwiches, to lunch choices like smoothies, bowls (salads), and ciabatta sandwiches. Willeman feels his menu is perfect for the current health climate because it fits the diet and lifestyle so many are following. "About 70% of our smoothies are gluten free and 30 of our smoothies are 500 calorie or less," he says, adding their smoothies can be customized further through choice of protein powder, probiotics, vitamins, and fresh ingredients like spinach, kale, or ginger.

Not only can you grab a smoothie at the 119 Lovell Road location 7:00am-9:00pm Monday through Friday, 8:00am-9pm on Saturdays, and from 9:00am-8:00pm on Sundays, but Tropical Smoothie Cafe also offers customizable boxed lunches, Bite Squad delivery, and delicious catering options.

Willeman reminds customers to be sure to wear flip flops June 15th and pick up a free Sunshine smoothie (from 2pm-7pm), to celebrate National Flip Flop Day. Tropical Smoothie Café offers all kinds of promotions like this throughout the year. To check out their menu or keep tabs on their next special, visit <https://www.tropicalsmoothiecafe.com/>, find them on Instagram @tscfarragut or call (865) 218-5000.
