A PUBLICATION OF THE FARRAGUT WEST KNOX CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

APRIL 2019

Get Your "Glad Rags" Ready!

Guys & Dolls, Pals & Gals—whatever your moniker, get your "glad rags" ready for an evening that will be "berries" and full of fun items to bid on, a beautiful ballroom and buffet that is just "the bees knees." Tickets are still available for the Chamber's 32nd Annual Auction "Diamonds & Pearls: A Gatsby Gala" presented by TDS Telecom on Friday, April 12, beginning at 6 p.m. at Rothchild Catering & Conference Center—but anyone planning to attend better "step on it!" Ticket prices will increase by $10 after Wednesday, April 10. Tickets can be reserved by visiting www.farragutchamber.com > Events > Annual Auction or by calling (865) 675-7057. Member tickets are currently $60, non-members $70, and tables of 10 guests are $550.

This evening will kick off with a Silent auction featuring dozens of gift cards/certificates for a wide variety of services and fun, themed baskets, "Libations," autographed collectibles, and so much more. The Silent auction concludes at 7:30, allowing guests time to re-visit the decadent buffet featuring carving stations, a gourmet "Mac 'n Cheese" bar, "Martini" Caprese salads and others. They can check out the Tabletop builds before being seated and prepping their paddles for the LIVE auction, featuring Bear Stephenson.

Bling Sponsor, Rick Terry Jewelry and other volunteers will circle the ballroom all night letting guests see the custom piece made just for the event: a 14k white gold cocktail ring encrusted with 80 round brilliant diamonds in a timeless setting and featuring an extra large white South Sea Pearl. Valued at just under $7,000, the ring is easily re-sized from it's current 6.5 and will go home with ONE lucky LIVE auction bidder.

Other live auction items include a beach-front Destin, Florida vacation (Mike Baker Insurance Consulting), a secluded North Carolina mountaintop cabin stay (Randy Patterson, Baker Donelson Attorneys), Dinner for 2 for a Year at Abuelo's: The Flavor of Mexico, a private chauffeured lake tour on your choice of boat (Nautical Boat Club), excellent business advertising packages through the farragutpress and Cityview Magazine, a 4-Person Golf Outing (Fox Den Country Club), and a set of Michelin Tires (Matlock Tire Service & Auto Repair).

First F.U.E.L Event to target Young Professionals

Wednesday, May 1 will be the date of the Chamber's first F.U.E.L. event (Focus. Unite. Engage. Lead.), a networking event focused exclusively on talented young professionals, entrepreneurs and emerging leaders. The event is a result of ongoing strategic planning initiatives which began in Fall 2018 during the chamber board's retreat. One top item for the Chamber in 2019 was to better target and serve young professionals in the 40 or under demographic. Board directors Jonathan Dzermejko-TDS Telecom and Katie Park-SouthEast Bank are the key board leaders behind the new program.

There is no charge for this inaugural event for members, guests or visitors. All attendees are welcome from any career stage; businesses are encouraged to send or bring a guest under 40. All attendees must be 21 or over and provide proof of I.D. to receive beverage tickets.

SouthEast Bank, TDS Telecom, and The Casual Pint Farragut are the gracious sponsors to provide a great local venue, appetizers and beverages and make the event possible. Guests should bring business cards for door prizes and for meeting/speaking with seasoned professionals offering

Speaker Series Continues with County Mayor

Business and community members alike are extremely interested in the next installment of the 2019 Breakfast Speaker Series presented by First Utility District, Lenoir City Utilities Board and the Town of Farragut, where Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs will discuss his vision for Knox County as it relates to the first budget he will soon present as mayor. Reservations have topped 100 and are expected to continue; they are required for entrance to the event on Tuesday, April 30, 7:30 a.m. at Rothchild Catering & Conference Center.

Jacobs

Prior to his election as mayor, Jacobs enjoyed a career with the WWE spanning nearly 25 years, which afforded him the opportunity to perform in front of millions of fans across the United States and in over 40 countries. Jacobs is a 20+ year resident of East Tennessee and has been a small business owner, with Jacobs Insurance Associates being the local champion of the Kindness Revolution, a national anti-bullying initiative. Along with wife Crystal, he founded

Kane's Crusaders, a non-profit organization with the mission of bringing joy to chronically ill teenagers in East Tennessee.

Since election, his stated goals have been "to continue to make Knox County a place where you want to raise a family; where businesses want to locate and bring jobs for you and your children and grandchildren; where visitors from across our great state and this great country will want to visit and make memories. Together, as a community, we're going to take Knox County in the right direction." The event begins with breakfast and networking opportunities at 7:30 a.m. The mayor is set to speak at 8:00 a.m. and will allow time for questions.

Sponsorships are still available at various levels with excellent advertising for this event. The chamber graciously thanks Presenting Sponsors First Utility District, Lenoir City Utilities Board and Town of Farragut, Community Sponsors FirstBank and Mike Baker Insurance Consulting, and Media Sponsor farragutpress. Reservations are $30 Members / $40 Non-members / $275 Table of 10 / $15 Students (with school ID). Breakfast included with all registrations. Visit farragutchamber.com > Events > Breakfast Speaker Series for more information.

Guests will also view and vote on the Best Dressed Tabletop. Builders this year are a mix of both veterans and newcomers: Cumulus Media, EatonTax & Business, faragutpress, JCPenney and the Tennessee Smokies Baseball. Who will win? Only attendees can decide!

As the Chamber's largest annual fundraising effort the auction helps the Chamber continue to provide business members with programs and services such as the Continuing Education Scholarships awarded to member businesses in amounts up to $500.

A charitable donation is also taken from a portion of ticket sales. This year, the Chamber is proud to support member, Emerald Youth Foundation. With a mission to "raise up a large number of urban youth to love Jesus Christ and become effective leaders who help renew their communities," Emerald Youth Foundation provides underserved and at-risk Knox County youth with opportunities to participate in sports leagues, career development and tutoring. The Chamber hopes to outfit three new middle school baseball teams with all the equipment they need from the night's donation.

The Chamber is proud and grateful for Presenting Sponsor TDS Telecom, Bling Sponsor Rick Terry Jewelry, Event Sponsors Rothchild Catering and the Town of Farragut; Community Sponsors MBI Companies and Y-12 Federal Credit Union; and Media Sponsors faragutpress, WKCE/1180 and ViaMedia. New Faces on the Board of Directors

Ballew

Biggs

Dean

The Chamber's Board of Directors will welcome three new faces for the 2019/2020 fiscal year, following the presentation of the slate of candidates to both the board and membership in late March. New directors confirmed as of April 8 are Frankie Ballew, Sitel Tennessee, Robin Biggs, Hilton Garden Inn Cedar Bluff and Christine Dean, HisSecurity. Each has committed to an initial three-year term.

Ballew is Human Resource Business Partner to the site director at Sitel Tennessee, as well as Talent Acquisition Specialist and Sitel Ambassador to Knox County Businesses. Her roles involve showcasing the Sitel brand and dedicating as much of her time as needed to supporting the community. Sitel Tennessee's new location on Outlet Drive will make it a major employer for the Farragut area. Ballew is excited for "the opportunity to support the community that I have been a part of since 1993." She has also served the maximum term for Susan G. Komen's Board of Directors and with CVS Caremark, giving her valuable global experience that can be utilized on a more local level.

Biggs is the Sales Director for the Hilton Garden Inn Knoxville West, with experience working with both local and visitor clients. She has participated in the Love Kitchen and helped organize fundraisers for Susan G. Komen, Toys for Tots and Emerald Youth Foundation. Biggs is interested in helping to "bring my knowledge of the hospitality and tourism industry to the board to promote the Chamber and promote area West Knoxville and Farragut businesses."

Dean is the Marketing & Business Development Manager for locally owned HisSecurity located in Farragut. Her role encompasses public relations, strategic planning, CRM software management, social media and content marketing, to name a few. Dean has served on several of the Chamber's event committees and has been an Ambassador since 2016. She has participated on multiple boards prior to the chamber's, including Associated Construction Women, and KAAR Affiliates,

Women's Council of Realtors Knoxville. Dean wished to serve on the Chamber's board because, "I love helping business owners and managers make their bottom line healthier." Her goals for her directorship include helping to "find ways to define the added value of a Farragut West Knox Chamber Membership both as a perception to outsiders thinking about joining and as appreciation to current members."

Returning for a second three-year term are Jonathan Dzermejko, TDS Telecom and Richard Qulia, Richard F. Qulia Polygraph & Investigations. Extending from a one-year to a three-year term is Katie Park, SouthEast Bank. Executive Officers presented to continue are Steven Lipsey, Lipsey Morrison Attorneys as Treasurer, Terry Rutherford, Regions Bank Farragut as Vice-Chair, and Beth Ann Carter, MBI Companies, Inc. as Chairman.

The Board is saddened to see the term limit reached for Brenda Herron, Copper Cellar Family of Restaurants. Herron has been described by several directors as "the hardest working board member we've ever had!" Herron will roll off as a director at the end of June, but still plans to continue to support the chamber through the Copper Cellar Family, which includes restaurant members like Calhoun's (multiple locations), Smoky Mountain Brewery Turkey Creek and Chesapeake's West.

All directors are excited to begin a new fiscal year in July and to continue charting the chamber's growth and supporting the success of member businesses. Applications for the 2020 board will be announced next January. Anyone with an interest in board service can contact Board Chair, Beth Ann Carter at bethc@mbicompanies.com or Chamber President/CEO, Julie Blaylock at Julie@farragutchamber.com.

Welcome Back Renewing Members

The Farragut/West Knox Chamber welcomes back these businesses who have renewed their investment in the Chamber as of this past March. We are privileged to count them as Farragut/West Knox Chamber of Commerce members! We urge members to patronize one another when the goods or services a member can provide are needed. It is also our hope that area residents recognize the commitment a business makes to its community when it becomes part of its local chamber of commerce and reward that commitment with their patronage.
